

The "Secrets" of VOC

A Free Workshop For People Who Work In Human Services

Did you know...?

- + The California Victim of Crime (VOC) program will pay for up to $9,000, about three years of therapy, for adults and children who have witnessed domestic violence, child abuse, sexual assault, homicide, stalking, and gang violence?
- + Almost every child in foster care, and their caregivers, qualify for free therapy through the VOC Program?
- + Adults who survived a sexual crime as a minor have until the age of 28 to apply for services?
- + There is no shortage of skilled, experienced therapists in Alameda County who are eager to work with VOC clients, and no waiting lists (unlike MediCal)?

Learn the Secrets Your Clients Need

Blackbird Family Therapy, Inc. offers this FREE one hour workshop, at your organization, or at the place and time below, as an introduction to the Victims of Crime (VOC) Program. In it you will learn:

- + Which of your clients qualify for VOC funding and how easy it is for them to apply
- + How to refer your clients to experienced therapists in private practice who do home visits

We'll Help Your Clients Apply

Blackbird Family Therapy, Inc. is happy to come to your organization to help your clients enroll. You can also have your clients call us at 510-594-4332, or fill out an online referral form, and we'll take care of the rest.
